Visiting Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering, Dept. of Mechanical Eng.

Gannon University's School of Engineering and Computing seeks a Visiting Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering beginning August 2024. This is a one-year appointment. The ideal candidate will be committed to excellence in innovative undergraduate education and will have significant professional or research experience in the fluid/thermal sciences, with experience in computational fluid dynamics (CFD) a plus. The successful candidate will teach at the undergraduate and graduate levels, lead student projects, prepare motivated students intellectually, professionally, and personally, and advise students. Subject to performance review and need of the program, the position may be converted to a full-time tenure track position after one year.

Qualifications include a Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering or closely related field completed by August 1, 2024; teaching experience in higher education is preferred. Candidates must be able to support and promote the University's inclusive Mission, its Catholic identity, and its liberal arts and professional education traditions.

Gannon is a comprehensive Masters L institution that is committed to student-centered learning, with an emphasis on professional education integrated with liberal-learning student outcomes.
